TOUR ANNOUNCEMENT

The San Diego and SoCal of Regions of Packards International are pleased to host our 5th annual Packard Night @ Escondido's Cruisin' Grand get-together during the weekend of September 12-14, 2008. This year is bigger and better than ever, as we will be touring the General Atomics' Predator manufacturing plant on Friday afternoon. (The Predator is the pilot-less spy plane used in Iraq.) On Friday evening our cars are the featured marque on Broadway - closed off for Packards-only parking so the admiring public can view our fine cars up close & personal. On Saturday we will conduct a Packards-only Concours d'Elegance at the Bernardo Winery in nearby Rancho Bernardo. Bernardo Winery is a charming setting with plenty of shade, boutiques, shops and eateries on the winery grounds. On Sunday, we will be displaying our fine motorcars to our men in uniform stationed at Camp Pendleton in the 4th Annual Patriotic Rally & Car Show (participation optional). All-in-all, it's going to be "CAN'T MISS IT" kind of weekend. Looking forward to seeing you there!
