MOTORCAR CLUB
ANNOUNCES
2009 NATIONAL TOUR TO:

Monday July 20, 2009
through Sunday July 26, 2009

PACKARD- THE VISION
The National Packard Museum
Warren, Ohio

TOUR ANNOUNCEMENT

The Packard National Museum and Packards International Motorcar Club invite you to attend PACKARD- THE VISION - the destination of our National Tour in 2009 - at the museum site in Warren, Ohio July 20-26. A full slate of exciting activities await you, including Opus II: the reproduction of a 1937 Packard Showroom, the All Packard Car Show, Exclusive Premiere of a Packard Documentary by Richard Luckin, Gala Grand-Opening Ribbon Cutting of the new museum expansion wing, and much more.

In addition, PI has scheduled a private tour of our own Gene Tareshawnty's collection of Darrin Packards in nearby Youngstown on Friday July 24. After the tour, we'll all meet for lunch at a nearby restaurant.

PI has selected the last 4 days of this week-long event as the days of focus for our club. You are encouraged to attend all 7 days; however, if you are considering taking in only a portion of the Tour, please consider joining us for the Thursday through Sunday (July 23 - 26) activities.

Included in this mailing of the Packards International Quarterly Magazine are the full museum information and registration materials to register for the tour. Don't delay - fill out the registration form and return it to the Museum ASAP. Please be sure to provide phone number and email address so we can contact you regarding times and meeting places for PI activities.

YOU ARE CORDIALLY INVITED TO RELIVE THE GRANDEUR OF 1937 IN THE OPUS II PACKARD SHOWROOM!

Nineteen thirty-seven was a glorious time for Packard and its best sales year ever; 122,593 finely crafted, responsibly styled, shiny new Packards vanished from showrooms worldwide. Come to Warren in 2009 to see what all the fuss was about!.

In 1937, an anxious public had been waiting for the Great Depression to end. President Roosevelt told the nation, "We have nothing to fear but fear itself!" Collectively people across the country wanted it to be so. And so, folks who had soberly clung to money deep in their pockets overcame a reluctance to spend, putting money back into circulation where it needed to be.

In celebration of its 20th Annual Car Show, 10th Anniversary of the Grand Opening,, and 110th Anniversary of the Packard Motor Car Company, the National Packard Museum proudly presents: "Opus II: a 1937 Showroom", complete with all its trappings; banners, posters, advertising and, most of all, an example of every Packard model produced that year!

There were more models than ever before, from the startling new six cylinder 115C model in 8 body styles, the 120 looking right spiffy, the elegant Super Eights, to the mighty Twelves in their splendor. All 49 models offered in 1937 will be on display in in Warren, Ohio in 2009!

As an added twist to "Opus II," every Packard in the 1937 Showroom will be offered in a mock "sale." Yes, indeed! Every prospective buyer can purchase the Packard of his choice at 1937 prices with special "Packard Museum Dollars". The lowest priced Packard, the 115C business coupe, will set a buyer back $795 in museum dollars. Upper crust buyers, for whom price is of no matter, will gladly forfeit $5900 for a handsome Towncar.

Additionally, the general public, as well as car show registrants, will have an opportunity to shop in the 1937 Showroom with "Packard Museum Dollars" acquired through patronage at participating local businesses, Tourism Bureau preferred providers and participation in meet events. Every $10 of real money spent at hotels, restaurants, gasoline stations and various outlets will pay out $100 in "Packard Museum Dollars". If the merchant is a member of the Trumbull County Tourism Bureau your $10.00 in receipts will net you a whopping $200 in Packard money at the National Bank of Packard teller window.

Museum money may be used daily to purchase tickets for door prizes given away each evening or accumulated to put down on a shiny new 1937 Packard! All new Packard owners will receive a certificate of title commemorating their purchase in the 1937 showroom.

At the end of the show, the buyer spending the most "Packard Museum Dollars" in the Showroom will win a prize. Rumor has it a sponsor may provide prizes with four wheels plus a steering wheel!

With the support of our friends throughout the United States and Canada, "Opus II" will be an exciting event for both Packard enthusiasts as well as the Warren area community!

I had the honor of serving as chairman of the "Opus Magnum" during the 1999 Packard Centennial Celebration, and I look forward to returning to Warren, Ohio, "the Birthplace of Packard" as chairman of "Opus II: 1937 Packard Showroom." I, along with the National Packard Museum's Board of Directors, Staff and Car Show Committee hope that you will accept our invitation to participate in this once in a lifetime event!

Sincerely,
Art James

Chairman, Opus II
Toronto, Ontario Canada

"Opus II: a 1937 Packard Showroom", will be complete with all its trappings; banners, posters, advertising and most of all, an example of every Packard model produced that year.

As an added twist, every Packard in the showroom will be offered in a mock sale procured by the buyer with "Packard Museum Dollars" acquired through purchases and participation! !

W.D. PACKARD BAND PROVIDES ESSENCE OF PACKARD'S VISION

The National Packard Museum enjoys a reputation for having an exceptional Car Show thanks to the support of the W.D. Packard Band and it's cooperative, visionary leadership.

Since 1999 the W.D. Packard Band has graciously partnered with the museum to provide entertainment and the nostalgic atmosphere that has become synonymous with the Packard show. Performing several times throughout the Annual Packard Weekend, and with a repertoire of Big Band, Dixieland and Jazz, guests and residents alike have been treated to the lively toe tapping music that most people pay large amounts of money to experience.

This collaboration is critical to the success of the annual Packard Show because it is the component of the event that distinguishes Warren's weekend show from all others. It is this most unique element of the show that draws participants and spectators back to the community each year, to once again, slip back in time to the good ol' days.

Thanks to the creative and imaginative mind of Packard Band Executive Director Tom Groth, we added "Dancing Under the Stars" to the schedule of events. A free community dance that offers an opportunity for residents and participants to enjoy the music and to put on their dancing shoes just as it was done long ago. Ohio weather prohibits the outdoor version of dancing under the stars, but with a little ingenuity we created an outdoor atmosphere for the event that has become very popular and extremely well attended.

Few people understand the sacrifice and commitment that is accepted by the band to participate at this level in our Packard Car Show. The band spends a significant amount of time, energy, and money to support the show and to offer these performances free of charge to the community. The talent, skill and dedication of the musicians is second to none. Thanks to Tom's leadership and support, in recent years the museum has enjoyed an expanded schedule of entertainment and the opportunity to showcase this gem of our community on a grander scale—much to the delight of our visitors and guests.

The vista created by the band on the beautiful south lawn of the music hall with a back drop of magnificent Packard automobiles gleaming in the sunshine and the harmonious sound of Big Band orchestrations echoing through the trees is the very essence of W. D. Packard's vision of a community in harmony. It etches within our memories a nostalgic vision of harmony, peace and prosperity. What a perfect way to spend the day—creating memories!

Don't miss any of the Packard Band performances especially the Sunday night concert. It is always the pinnacle of the wonderful Packard weekend.

Our sincere appreciation to Tom Groth and the W.D. Packard Band for making us look and sound so good!
