Your Souvenir Portrait by the Christmas tree so your descendants can see what you looked like as you came through the Crash of 2008 without a scratch.

Gourmet Lunch by one of the best kitchens in SoCal, preferred by politicians and lobbyists when they were flying high, with three great entrée choices:

- Petit Filet Mignon with Black Pepper Cranberry sauce, Mashed Potatoes, Baby Veggies
- Herb Crusted Mahi Mahi, Sweet Potato Gnocchi and Lobster Sauce
- Stuffed Sliced Chicken Roulade with Soft Polenta and Red Pepper Coulis

Each entrée includes a Classic Caesar Salad of Romaine Hearts, Herb Croutons, and Parmesan Cheese. The Dessert will be Flourless Chocolate Cake with Cappuccino Ice Cream & Vanilla Bean Sauce. Special Kids Menu of Fruit Cup, Chicken tenders w/french fries and ice cream.

Cash bar for those who can, or still need to, drink.

Traditional White Elephant Exchange, designed to help bailout Santa, who is looking at Chapter 11 this year. Bailout directed by past "fed" president, Keith Alber, just returned from tinkering with the interest rates. Be sure to wrap your elephant with love, or at least, with seasonal gift wrap. You choose which season. (For every gift you bring, you get to take one home.)

Pre-Crash Washington, D.C. prices for everyone, with subsidized deficit spending by the Club. Let your kids or grandkids pay the rest. A little inflation never hurt anybody.

The Center Club is a private club that ranks #1 on the snooty scale; a popular choice of hedge fund managers and arbitrageurs last year. Try not to recognize your stock broker among the valet parking attendants. But, you might want to finish up that nip/tuck. Then wear your best bib and tucker, your longest gown, your fuzziest fur. Ladies should also dress appropriately. Bring your friends who will want to be a part of history.

Drive your Packard and park in the canopied driveway of the Orange County Performing Arts Center. Brand X cars can use the parking structure for $8.

Return reservation form asap, but no later than Dec 10. We're in the small room this year.
