Christmas Party

Sunday, December 9, 2012

The Ritz Restaurant, Newport Beach

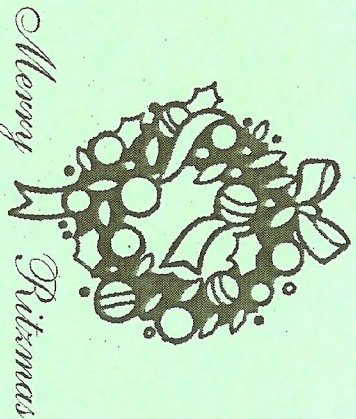

What could be more Packardly than Christmas at the Ritz?

The Ritz is the ultimate gourmet dining destination in southern California since 1977.

The atmosphere of classical Georgian styling is enhanced with featured portraits of M. Auguste Escoffier himself. He was the original chef of The Ritz in Paris and is now keeping a watchful eye over us.

Special Treatment

We got our own dining room for lunch. Bring your best date, your best manners and wear your best Sunday suit.

Entertainment

Our traditional White Elephant Gift Exchange.

Bring your whitest elephant and expect another one in return. You deserve it.

Socialization

Socialize with the most sophisticated people in southern California, your fellow Packardites and Packardettes.

Celebrity Guest

A descendant of the original Santa Claus will be in attendance to pose for photos with you or offer seasonal business advice to business people.

Kids under 12 welcome.

Special kid meals to order, for the young sophisticates just learning how to behave in a polite society and how to respect the family-Packard.

Flash photography permitted.

Special WalMart pricing. If dining at The Ritz is on your bucket list, now is the time to take advantage of this great opportunity that our tourmasters have negotiated for you.

Exquisite Dining

The most elegant meal in Orange County.

There is no need to pre-select your entrée now. Your choice can be given to the waiter at time of seating.

Starter

Garden lettuces with goat cheese, walnuts and pears

Entrees - your choice of...

- Roast Christmas Goose with Lingonberry Sauce with Sauce Beurre Blanc
- Poached Atlantic Salmon with Champagne Sauce
